1. Introduction

An important part of the relationship we have with our clients is the information you share with us. Protecting your privacy is important to us and we want you to know how we treat your nonpublic personal information.

Pursuant to Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") Regulation S-P (17 CFR 248.1 – 248.30), this document explains the Privacy Policy of FamilyWealth.com LLC ("FamilyWealth") concerning the privacy interests of our clients. FamilyWealth Advisers ("FWA") is a Nevada Limited Liability Company with its principal office in Denver, Colorado; FamilyWealth Asset Management ("FWAM") is a Texas Limited Liability Company with its principal office in Dallas, Texas. For the purpose of this document, FWA and FWAM are individually or jointed referred to herein as FamilyWealth, as the context may require. FamilyWealth is an investment adviser registered with the [regulatory agency name]. FamilyWealth's principal business is to act as an investment adviser in accordance with all laws, rules and regulations applicable to investment advisers and the business conducted by investment advisers. As an investment adviser, FamilyWealth's principal business is to provide investment advisory and investment management services to clients.

The policy of FamilyWealth is to protect the confidentiality, integrity and security of any nonpublic personal information of its clients and prospective clients, and to prevent unauthorized access to, or the use or disclosure of such information. In its capacity as an investment adviser, investment manager, and in conducting its advisory business, FamilyWealth receives and/or comes into contact with certain nonpublic personal information concerning its current and/or former customers. FamilyWealth receives and/or comes into contact with the nonpublic personal information only for purposes of conducting its business as described above. Any and all such nonpublic personal information is hereinafter referred to as "nonpublic personal information." For convenience, "you" or "your" refers to any and all client(s) described above and "we," "our" and "us" refers to FamilyWealth throughout this document.

2. Our Commitment to You

We are committed to safeguarding the use of your nonpublic personal information. We protect the security and confidentiality of the nonpublic personal information we have collected, and make efforts to ensure that such information is used for proper business purposes in connection with the management or servicing of your account. Our relationship with you is our most important asset. We understand that you have entrusted us with your nonpublic personal information, and we do everything we can to maintain that trust.

We do not sell your nonpublic personal information to anyone unaffiliated with FamilyWealth, except as the law may permit such as 3rd party service providers that enable FamilyWealth to provide the services to you. Such 3rd party service provides include the custodians that hold your assets and securities and that issue official account documentation to you. We provide such no information to others except for discrete and proper business purposes, in connection with the servicing and management of your account as discussed below.

Details of our approach to privacy and how your nonpublic personal information is collected and used are set forth in this Privacy Policy.

3. Definitions

- Affiliates
Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. We do not share your nonpublic personal information with any affiliates.
- Non-Affiliates
Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. We do not share your nonpublic personal information with non-affiliates except as describe in this notice.
- Joint Marketing
A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. We do not engage in joint marketing.

4. Nonpublic Personal Information Collected

In conducting business as described above, FamilyWealth collects (or may collect), for example, the following types of nonpublic personal information:

- Information we receive from you such as:
 - Information you provide in connection with any securities account, margin loan, debit card or any other financial product or service, such as your name, address, social security number, tax ID number, assets, income, investment objectives, financial situation and debt. This information is obtained (or may be obtained) in writing, in person, by telephone, electronically or by any other means.
 - Information we obtain (or may obtain) for the purpose of tax reporting to you and to the various agencies to which we report as required by law, including disclosures on various Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) forms.
- Information about your securities and/or other transactions such as:
 - Information we collect that relates to account balance, payment history, trading activity and any other transactions concerning which we provide investment advisory services or investment management services
 - Information we collect as part of servicing your account(s).
- Information about your transactions with non-affiliated 3rd parties such as:
 - Information from non-affiliated 3rd parties pursuant to law, rules, regulations, standard securities industry practice and/or legal process, including information and/or documents received, shared, produced or provided in connection with a subpoena, discovery request or other legal process compelling production
 - Information from non-affiliated 3rd parties related to servicing your account for purposes of providing investment management services.

5. Nonpublic Personal Information Disclosed to Affiliates and Non-affiliated 3rd Parties

We disclose to affiliates and non-affiliated 3rd parties nonpublic personal information only in connection with us providing investment management services or in respect of conducting our investment advisory business. Such disclosures include, among other things, information related to transactions, settlement, billing, payment, processing, clearing, transferring, reconciling, collection and tax reporting. Such disclosures may be provided to affiliates and non-affiliated 3rd parties:

- As required or necessary to carry out fully and properly the business conducted by us such as:
 - Disclosures to affiliated and non-affiliated 3rd party service providers who supply us with computer related services including data maintenance and document processing and delivery
 - Processing services, and disclosures to non-affiliated 3rd parties such as securities clearing agencies and entities
- As required by law or legal process
- With your consent.

6. Former Customers

We will disclose nonpublic personal information about former clients of our investment advisory and investment management business only as permitted and/or required by law or legal process, or with the former client's consent.

7. When You Can Limit Sharing

Federal law gives you the right to limit the sharing of your nonpublic personal information, when: (1) sharing is for affiliates' everyday business purposes, (2) sharing with affiliates is done to use your information to market to you, and (3) sharing with non-affiliates is done to use your information to market to you. We do not share your information in any of these ways. State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. On the other hand, you may not object to the use of 3rd party service providers that are necessary to conduct the business contemplated in the contract you have signed with FamilyWealth. The most notable examples relates to the custodian of your assets and securities.

8. Confidentiality and Security of Nonpublic Personal Information

We are committed to implementing and maintaining commercially reasonable and appropriate measures to maintain your nonpublic personal information in a secure and confidential fashion. Our information security procedures include, but are not limited to, the following features:

- Access controls on customer information systems, including controls to authenticate and permit access only to authorized individuals, and controls to prevent our employees from providing nonpublic personal information to unauthorized individuals who may seek to obtain this information through fraudulent means
- Physical access restrictions at locations such as buildings, computer facilities, and record storage facilities, in order to restrict access of nonpublic personal information to unauthorized individuals
- Encryption, where appropriate, of electronic customer nonpublic personal information

- Segregation of duties for our employees with responsibilities necessitating access to nonpublic personal information
- Monitoring systems and procedures to detect actual and attempted attacks or intrusions into information systems containing nonpublic personal information
- Response programs that specify actions to be taken when we suspect or detect that unauthorized individuals may have gained access to nonpublic personal information
- A disaster recovery plan to protect against loss or damage to nonpublic personal information due to potential hazards, such as fire and water damage or technological interruption or failure.

We regularly review, revise and update our information security procedures to account for changes in technology.

9. Maintenance of Records

Nonpublic personal information about you will be maintained during the time you are a client, and for the required time thereafter that such records are required to be maintained by federal and state securities laws. After this required period of record retention, all such information will be destroyed.

10. Notice to Clients

We will send you notice of our Privacy Policy annually for as long as you maintain an ongoing relationship with us. Periodically we may revise our Privacy Policy, and will provide you with a revised policy if the changes materially alter the previous Privacy Policy. We will not, however, revise our Privacy Policy to permit the sharing of nonpublic personal information other than as described in this notice unless we first notify you and provide you with an opportunity to prevent the information sharing.

11. Opting Out

Section 502(a) of the G-L-B Act generally prohibits a financial institution, directly or through its affiliates, from sharing nonpublic personal information with a non-affiliated 3rd party unless the institution (i) provides the consumer with a notice of the institution's privacy policies and practices, (ii) provides the consumer with a clear and conspicuous notice that the consumer's nonpublic personal information may be disclosed to non-affiliated 3rd parties, (iii) gives the consumer an opportunity to opt out of that disclosure, and (iv) informs the consumer how to opt out.

Clients cannot opt out of allowing FamilyWealth.com to share their nonpublic personal information with non-affiliated 3rd parties which are necessary to service their accounts such as Custodians, 3rd Party Administrators or certain software vendors. We do not share client information with any 3rd parties that do not need the information in order to provide some type of service for your account.

12. Requests for Information

Anyone may request a copy of our Privacy Policy or procedures by contacting John Alvarez either in writing at FamilyWealth at 1601 Elm Street, Suite 4310, Dallas, TX 75201, or by phone at (214) 624-1008, or via the Compliance Officer contained in our Privacy Policy Notice.

PRIVACY POLICY NOTICE – FAMILYWEALTH™

FamilyWealth.com LLC (“FamilyWealth”) adopted this policy with recognition that protecting the privacy and security of the nonpublic personal information we obtain about our clients is an important responsibility. We also know that you expect us to service you in an accurate and efficient manner. To do so, we must collect and maintain certain nonpublic personal information about you. We want you to know what information we collect and how we use and safeguard that information.

WHAT INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect certain nonpublic personal information about you (such as your name, address, social security number, etc.) that you provide on applications or other forms as well as communications (electronic, telephone, written or in person) with you or your authorized representatives (such as your attorney, accountant, etc.). We also collect information about your brokerage accounts and transactions (such as purchases, sales, account balances, inquiries, etc.).

WHAT INFORMATION WE DISCLOSE

FamilyWealth does not disclose the nonpublic personal information we collect about our clients to anyone except: (1) in furtherance of our business relationship with clients, and then only to those persons necessary to effect the transactions and provide the services that clients authorize (such as broker-dealers, custodians, independent managers etc.); (2) to persons assessing our compliance with industry standards (e.g., professional licensing authorities, etc.); (3) our attorneys, accountants, and auditors; or (4) as otherwise provided by law.

We are permitted by law to disclose the nonpublic personal information about you to governmental agencies and other 3rd parties in certain circumstances (such as 3rd parties that perform administrative services on our behalf). These 3rd parties are prohibited to use or share the information for any other purpose. If you decide to either terminate our services or become an inactive client, we will continue to adhere to our Privacy Policy, as may be amended from time to time.

SECURITY OF YOUR INFORMATION

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to those employees who need to know that information to service your account. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable federal or state standards to protect your nonpublic personal information.

CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY OR RELATIONSHIP WITH YOU

Our policy about obtaining and disclosing information may change from time to time. We will provide you notice of any material change to this policy before we implement the change.

OPTING OUT

Clients cannot opt out of allowing FamilyWealth.com to share their nonpublic personal information with non-affiliated 3rd parties which are necessary to service their accounts.
